

Jürgen Klopp's side, who are competing in the Champions League at the moment, will face Leicester at Anfield in the match between the two sides. Videos Highlights of the Leicester City vs Liverpool tie: FIFA History: FIFA released the FIFA Interactive World Cup in December of 1999 on only 3 gaming platforms at the time, the PlayStation, Dreamcast and N64. It was a perfect fit for these consoles as they were Sony and Nintendo Game Boy Color rivals and may as well be. The one thing EA hasn't done, nor should they, is get with the times, this can't be one of their main focuses. If the goal is to simply make an enjoyable and atmospheric game, like FIFA 13, then here we are. This is the kind of game EA should be making. The Soundtrack: Oh boy, I will say this, the soundtrack by Trent Reznor and Atticus Ross, both known for the likes of The Social Network and The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo, is pretty decent. The best part being I like the new song at the beginning of the game, it goes with the mode "FIFA Ultimate Team." The Announcements: Well I like this announcement, FIFA World Cups will return. This is a good start. You should have seen some of the older FIFA competitions not happening in recent years, the World Cup in 2008 almost going in to stoppage after we lost to Portugal. As long as they can aim to return to its past glory days, then I say, all the best. The Weather: The weather options are pretty good, with a range of non-player created weather conditions to choose from. When we play there will be some degree of rain, and all the facilities in the stadiums will need to be in good working order otherwise the players will have a really hard time playing. Match Highlights: Yes, this is pretty important. This should help the game a lot, players get to see themselves and what they can do in the game. This is a good start I say, as the commentary should be good as well. My Conclusion: My thing isn't with FIFA itself, it is with EA's lack of care for it. I just don't get it. The atmosphere of the game it is good, and the sound effects and gameplay should be top notch, all these things and more

What's new:

- Fifa 22 PC - Full Official Update introduces "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data collected from 22 real-life players playing a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. The data collected from player movements, tackles, aerial duels and on-ball actions is used to power FIFA 22 gameplay.
- The new Miami-set Stadium Journey mode includes a revamped match and training.-
- Career Mode introduces the new Player Manager, allowing you to build a dynamic squad from your favourite players.
- The Fan Shop, giving you the chance to win extra content.
- The updated FIFA Ultimate Team rewards system, improving and simplifying currency acquisition and sightly reward existing players in.
- Drive for Possession, a new, pass-oriented AI that re-writes the story of soccer games from the mid field to the goal line. For example, pressing the Pass button no longer results in a ball being played out of the back.
- Extra Back Passes. It didn't take long for players to begin abusing this new feature.
- The impact of multiple players on control are improved, making it feel more precise.
- Rubber Banding. Players stuck in a tight position are less likely to do crazy dribbles. This helps maintain a flow and accuracy to the game, though at times it can be harsh.
- The ball handles the damage and torque from larger crowds well. This makes it feel more responsive at higher crowds; it is best to try the match in smaller crowd settings to feel how the ball reacts at medium and high crowd levels.
- New Ballcare system: The amount of times the ball can bounce and control has been tweaked to make it feel great on all surfaces and improved the general play balance. You might notice ball control feels better than previous iterations when played on very slippery surfaces.
