Brian Walters, 57, is thought to have been found hanged, on Tuesday August 24th, at the site of his cell in Roscoe Wing. A post mortem examination will take place on Wednesday, August 25th. The death is not being treated as suspicious.

Police were called to Forest Bank prison near Stockport at around 6pm on Friday August 20th after Mr Walters had been found dead in his cell. He was taken to hospital as a precaution following the incident and was later arrested on suspicion of cruelty to animals. Police have stated that they are not looking for anyone else in connection with the incident.Q: Javascript: comparison of Date() to null gives unexpected results I have the following javascript lines in a function: var columnStartDateTime = document.getElementById('columnStartDateTime'); var columnEndDateTime = document.getElementById('columnEndDateTime'); if (columnStartDateTime == null) { document.getElementById("columnStartDateTime").style.display = "none"; } else { alert('Hello'); } if (columnEndDateTime == null) { document.getElementById("columnEndDateTime").style.display = "none"; } else { alert('Hello'); } Both variables have been assigned Date objects, so var columnStartDateTime = document.getElementById('columnStartDateTime'); var columnEndDateTime = document.getElementById('columnEndDateTime'); if (columnStartDateTime == null) { document.getElementById("columnStartDateTime").style.display = "none"; } else { alert('Hello'); } if (columnEndDateTime == null) { document.getElementById("columnEndDateTime").style.display = "none"; } else { alert('Hello'); } Both variables have been assigned Date objects, so
