Jurassic Snap by Madfinger Games is an unmissable animal-collecting adventure game with over 100 Million players! Jurassic Snap is a new take on the classic game of Tetris. A heartwarming tale of friendship from the creators of "Medal of Honor: Warfighter." Available April 16th on Steam, Xbox One, PS4 and Nintendo Switch. 100,000,000+ Players Medal of Honor Warfighter was a blockbuster multiplayer World War 2 game where you can be a sniper, a soldier, a grunt, a tank driver, a bomber pilot or any other job you want and fight from the deserts of Egypt to the mountains of Japan. You wanted freedom and you got it in a variety of game modes. This was the game that changed the way we played World War 2. We are so proud of the game that we decided to make an all new game that takes place after we've won the war, a game that is about friendship. Our vision was a future where you can play as a fox, a wolf, and a bear! A game where you can learn skills together with your best friend. A game where you get to know and love the characters like you've never seen them before. A game where you will get to be a polar bear and train with your furry friends. A game where we put a hero in a dog costume and give you the chance to rescue the dog's owner. The shortlist for this year's Ozzie and Harvey awards has been announced. The finalists are being finalized for the 2017 Ozzie Awards, our annual tribute to the finest achievements in Australian video games. We're very excited to see the shortlist, but we can't wait to honour the winners. The winners will be announced on 15 September during an event at the Australian Game Developers' Association (AGDA) annual conference, which will be broadcast live on Mixcloud. Also, in the three weeks since we launched on Android, we've hit 50,000 downloads and we've had a steady flow of new players each day. Thanks to all our new fans! We're working hard on game two and, while we don't have firm release dates yet, we're going to be busy, busy, busy (and if you want to get a hold of us you know where to find us).
We've been hearing a lot of

"People see a small woman, and they don't like me. I am a threat to them." Citing poverty and low self-esteem, Ms. Correa has been a victim of bullying and harassment for years, bullying that began online. She has more recently had to deal with recent attacks on her household. After a message was posted on Facebook (now deleted) calling for members of her household to be killed, she and her sister were held at gunpoint by members of a local gang and told to "go back to where you came from." "I'm always afraid," she said. "My sister and I are still traumatized. We live in fear." Victims of harassment are encouraged by a range of public officials, including police and prosecutors, to remain silent. They must be responsible for their own safety, they are told. But that means victims must remain silent and stay in their homes. They cannot go out — even to go grocery shopping, or to take the bus or subway — and they cannot tell anyone about their ordeal, even family members who may be able to intervene, because they believe the threats will continue. "The police and prosecutors
