What's new:

Mon, 20 Oct 2015 14:32:37 +0900 GG.RUCH, a strategy-RPG Made in Japan, Mascots & Items Chosen From 80's Cartoons!I've been half-expecting some sort of cooperation between Playism and the Japanese studio that was going to make a strategy-RPG; but I'm starting to doubt that the relations between Japan & Europe, good as they are, are enough to offset all the cultural difference here to make such a game from Europe practical. Well, I've put all my expectations aside, because it's a shame to await few screenshots of this interesting project, and I actually wanted to do some pictorial analysis of the characters they came up with. Apparently, the game has "eighties" as a genre: along with the already-mentioned strategy, there will be a card game, a coin game, and a battle game. The 12 mascot characters are actually a parody of many 80s mascots. I've been sifting them, and I came up with this: On one side we have a group-mind: KOPIIKI BAKA, G.O.D. and JOKER WIZARD. Also, it's worth noting that all the mascots in the game have doubled up in the English language, so now "G.O.D." is "Goddess of Destruction," "Joker Wizard" is "Joker Creature," "KOPIIKI BAKA" is "Sacred Emperor Kanev," and so on... On the other side is the infamous FREAK IGOCHAU, YEETEE'S HARSH REALITY, YUU-RAI-TAI MASTER, and WISHKEE PEDAM. Can't wait to see what's on their cartoon-descriptions! Now, a quick glance through the gameplay aspects: - Character creation is pretty easy, and allows for customization.
