Story The sequel to Ectolibrium: Strategic Elite. The dying world of Ectolibrium is under attack. No new population is emerging. The people are running out of food and resources, but more importantly, the land is slowly being swallowed by a strange shadow that has appeared in the sky, to all appearances, nothing more than a mysterious darkening of the sky.As the shadow takes shape, strange creatures appear. Far from being just a passing phenomenon, the creature appears to be actively stalking the land. The people know that there must be something more than meets the eye, and with just a few days to go before the end of the world, can you stay ahead of the creatures and the shadow? The Story of Ectolibrium 2: Follow a lost boy into the high deserts of Egypt as he goes on a journey to uncover the secrets of Ectolibrium No Man's Land: In the wide and remote Australian Outback, a nation was born. New lives were created, new identities formed and new empires were created.The littlest country of them all was named Ectolibrium. The people thrived on a rocky, but fertile landscape and had witnessed a number of upheavals since their founding. A century ago, they built a giant wall, to keep the invading forces of Ectolibrium at bay, creating a frontier style city within it called the Capital of Serenity. The Capital of Serenity became a central meeting place for a group of countries that had come to share their resources. However, a war with the fiercest nation of them all would eventually tear the peace apart and bring a nation of poor and refugees into a new country of hope. The Capital of Serenity is now a heartless metropolis of extreme decadence and sickness where the 'Zion' rebels from the brink of an epic city-wide revolt. What's new:

features a new series and a new game mechanic. While the first episode was a mini-game, the second one was a regular story. It is, however, appropriate to have these two mixed and matched because that's what the entire ep. 3 is about: faded embers. ep. 3 operates as a set-up for the many missions of the new race in the eighth world. The players will have to survive in a teeming city, but everything is a little bit different. Both the scavengers now have the means to fight, but now in a more organized way. Now if you're wondering why the teeming city exists in this post-apocalyptic world, that's the whole story of the faded embers. The faded embers are not the product of nuclear weapons, they're not even the aftermath of a plague. They exist because the world is now so complicated that they are purposefully fading from the earth. If you're looking for a more detailed explanation, it's because this war of mine will be holding a very deep focus. These are not the greatest battles, do not progress the story. They're mostly there to add flavor and spice to the game. But that's as if we didn't talk about the games from this week. These were the games that arrived this week: Warzone 2100 You'll know what is this game in the description. Warzone 2100 is a pretty straightforward tower defense game that has become somewhat of a niche genre. If you look at tower defense games, you won't find that many of those. The genre is not that popular at all. It's not because these games aren't fun and they're very well done, because the genre is growing rather quickly. The problem is that the number of games is a lot less than the number of people. This is bad for the genre because it means that it is a hard game to promote, and its uniqueness is for nothing. We already have one Xenoblade reboot, it's time to move on. Breathe of Fire This game came in on day two of the Steam Early Access program. So, it's not out yet. However, we already wrote an article about the game, and the review is out now. Because this game received a 10 from Indie Game Magazine, which is among the highest values assigned to games in reviews, we can safely assume that this game is pretty good.

Cars for rent and drive around different tracks on every world map more... Important: An error occurred while trying to load the game data. Please try again. Screenshot(s) available for Bambino Rally 3 Cars for rent and drive around different tracks on every world map Join online multiplayer and race with 5 players in intense and unique multiplayer competition. Four different mini cars, two different engine types, completely new physics, completely new graphics - the game has it all. And in a nutshell, we've decided to create a nostalgic experience where retro mini cars drive your way through all 7 locations of the original Polish Rally 3. Let's start with the cars: There is some customization possible as well. You can equip the mini car with a unique bodywork, mechanical parts and nice exterior or interior graphics. This is a very easy process as the game keeps track of all modifications and will keep them applied as long as you don't change any of them. In the game all the mini cars can be rented for a specific fee and drive on any world map track, just press the start button at the very beginning of every track you'd like to drive. All you need to do is to keep your car on track and don't fall behind at any time. Cars are controlled by a steering wheel, move only forward, can turn left/right and brakes work pretty good (if not better). The brake pedal is not powered, just press it and everything will slow down. In the beginning you will get a random mini car, while you earn money you can purchase a premium car (slightly faster, with a bit more HP, better brakes and steering, some visual modifications). In the game you can collect trophies, that will let you unlock new bodywork versions and the engine modification. Multiplayer mode works just like real life: you can challenge other players. You have to be in sight only of the opponent (and the finish line), otherwise he will ram your car - we want you to be aware of that! In the multiplayer mode you will meet unique driver that will represent your team (each of these teams contains 7-8 drivers), at the beginning he will start the race in a fast car, but then it will slow down by time and you will have to overtake the leader and overtake all the other players. Try to help him as much as you can. A fast moving vehicle is the key to victory
